

elements | God's Glory

A 3-Lesson Bible Study

God's glory is another one of those "church" words teenagers think they understand. Until they actually try to define it. Then, they realize they really don't have a good grasp on what God's glory is. After this study, they won't have any problem knowing what God's glory is, and how it affects their lives.

God's Glory, one of the studies in the elements line of Bible study curriculum, will help your students see that God's glory speaks primarily to the honor and awe due to God simply for who He is, the role Jesus played in physically demonstrating God's glory on this earth, and that God is given glory as they live out their everyday lives, especially during tough times.

Teach elements | God's Glory and help your students live vibrant lives that ultimately bring honor to God.

God's Glory Lesson Overviews

Lesson 1: Glory Defined

- Objective: The point of the lesson is that students would understand that God's glory speaks to the honor and awe due to God, and that they would be challenged to both look for God's glory and respond to it in their daily lives.
- Scripture Focus: Exodus 24:15-18, Luke 2:8-10, Revelation 21:22-25, 1 Chronicles 16:23-29, Psalms 19:1-3, Romans 1:18-20

Lesson 2: Glory On Display

- Objective: The point of the lesson is that students would understand the role Jesus played in demonstrating God's glory on this earth, and that they would evaluate what effect truly "seeing" Jesus' glory has on their relationship with Christ.
- Scripture Focus: John 1:10-14, Hebrews 1:1-3, John 17:1-5, John 2:1-11

Lesson 3: Glory To God Through Us

- Objective: The point of the lesson is that students would understand that God is given glory as they live out their everyday lives, especially during tough times, and that students will accept the challenge to be more identified with Christ through their daily actions and interactions.
- Scripture Focus: 1 Corinthians 10:31-33, 1 Peter 1:3-7, 2 Corinthians 4:7-15
