A 3-Lesson Bible Study

YOU COULD MAKE A PRETTY GOOD ARGUMENT THAT GRACE forms the foundation of God's relationship with us. Your students probably have an idea of what grace is, but do they know how completely grace covers God's interactions with them? Do they understand how God demonstrates His grace in their lives each day?

Grace, one of the studies in the elements line of Bible study curriculum, will help your students learn how God's grace shapes their relationship with Him, how salvation through Christ is the fullest expression of God's grace, and how they're called to be people whose every relationship is defined by grace.

Teach elements | Grace and help your students to recognize God's goodness at work all around them.

Grace Lesson Overviews

Lesson 1: A Gracious God

- Objective: The point of the lesson is that your students would understand how God's grace is to be understood as His goodness and loving-kindness toward people, and how this shapes their interactions with Him.
- Scripture Focus: Psalm 31:19, Micah 7:18, Psalm 145:8-16

Lesson 2: Ultimate Grace

- Objective: The point of the lesson is that your students would understand that salvation through Christ is the fullest expression of God's grace, and that they would be able to identify how God's grace transformed their characters.
- Scripture Focus: Titus 3:3-8

Lesson 3: People Of Grace

- Objective: The point of the lesson is that your students would understand that they are called to be people whose every relationship is defined by grace, and to identify examples of how they can extend grace to their family, friends, and peers.
- Scripture Focus: Colossians 3:12-17, Ephesians 4:1-3
