A 3-Lesson Bible Study

We can know God. Pretty amazing, right? But there are aspects of God that are just too awesome to fully comprehend. For many of your students, the Holy Spirit is one of those aspects. While it might stretch their minds, they need to know that God is One, but that He exists in three Persons. The focus of this study is unpacking this “third person” of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit.

Holy Spirit, one of the studies in the elements line of Bible study curriculum, will help students understand who the Holy Spirit is and what His presence in their life signifies, the role Jesus played in ushering in a new way of relating to the Holy Spirit, and what exactly the Bible means by the “fruit of the Spirit.” More importantly, it will help them see how this impacts their lives.

Teach elements | Holy Spirit and help your students begin to grasp the depth of God’s identity.

Holy Spirit Lesson Overviews

Lesson 1: The Spirit’s Promise

- Objective: The point of the lesson is that your students would understand who the Holy Spirit is and what His presence in their life signifies, and that they might begin to express how His presence makes them feel.
- Scripture Focus: Deuteronomy 6:4-5, Genesis 1:1-2, John 1:1-4, John 14:15-17, Ephesians 1:13-14, Titus 3:4-7

Lesson 2: Roles of The Spirit

- Objective: The point of the lesson is that students would understand the role Jesus played in ushering in a new way of relating to the Holy Spirit, and that they would begin to seek the Spirit’s guidance in and through the roles Jesus described the Spirit playing in their lives.
- Scripture Focus: John 14:25-26, John 16:5-11, John 16:12-13

Lesson 3: Living A Spirit-Infused Life

- Objective: The point of the lesson is that students would understand what the Bible means by the “fruit of the Spirit,” and that they would evaluate the Spirit’s work in them by how present the Spirit’s “fruit” is in their day-to-day lives.
- Scripture Focus: Galatians 5:16-25
